

ADULT LEADER BASIC TRAINING

OWL or BALOO

LINCOLN TRAILS COUNCIL-WIDE TRAINING COURSE

LOCATION: RHODES FRANCE SCOUT RESERVATION
DATE: SATURDAY - APRIL 12, 2008
REGISTRATION TIME: 7:30 A.M. to 8:00 A.M.
DEPARTURE TIME: BALOO - 3:00 PM OWL - 9:00 PM

Sign up now for the Outdoor Leader Skills for Webelos Leaders (OWL) or Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation (BALOO) training course. OWL training is designed to provide WEBELOS leaders with basic outdoor skills for WEBELOS camping. BALOO training teaches Cub pack camping. One registered leader must be BALOO trained in order for the pack to go camping and this trained leader must attend the campout.

These training sessions include a wide variety of presentations, demonstrations, displays, and events designed to familiarize you with the outdoor Scouting program. No experience is necessary and both male and female leaders are encouraged to attend.

Lunch will be $5.00 per person for the BALOO training session. Lunch for the OWL trainees will be provided by the Scoutmaster Staff Cook-off, but supper will cost $5.00.

For more information you may contact: Charles Jarvis, Council Training Chairman, at (217) 422-7735, Pam Roberts, Railsplitter District Training Chairperson at (217) 864-9632, Jim Green, Redhawk District Training Chairman, at (217) 235-6698, Dennis Hostetter, Two Rivers Training Chairman, at (217) 459-2784.
